

Conservation area report September 2021

- Illegal advertising: we continue to experience illegal advertising, including flyposting, misuse of 'A' boards and even sail-type banners in the conservation area. These have been reported and will be enforced on in due course
- Improvements: there have been a number of improvements to properties in the conservation area recently, which is great to see.

Vanessa Bell